Waterloo Amateur Retriever
Club Code of Ethics

All reports of violations of the following listed ethics will be reviewed by the Board with a chance for defense of the violation on behalf of the offender. If found guilty, automatic suspension and/or termination of the offender's membership will result.

1. Endangering the lives of fellow club members

2. Abuse of any animal

3. Disrespectful display of any animal whose life was given for our sport

4. Disorderly conduct at club function (intoxication, use of non-prescription drugs, belligerence)

5. Any suspension by the AKC for misconduct will carry a like sentence from the WARC

6. Any behavior that may be construed as detrimental to the reputation of and/or development of Waterloo Amateur Retriever Club or it's membership will be grounds for immediate dismissal from all club functions and cancellation of membership.

The undersigned has read the above Code of Ethics, Constitution and By Laws, fully understands them and agrees to abide by these Code of Ethics, as well as the Club's By Laws and Constitution.
